THE FIRST SNOW FOR SEVERAL YEARS

A Freeze Followed Which Makes Crop Prospects Better. The Weather Coldest of Some Years Past. Children Greatly Pleased. Much Sledding.

Grenada had the first touch of real winter weather last Saturday night and Sunday.

It began to rain Friday night and rained pretty well throughout Saturday. Saturday night before bed time it was sleeting and ere Sunday morning came, the ground was covered with snow and it continued to snow and sleet throughout the day.

The mercury, which had ranged around 60 degrees throughout the week, started downward Friday night and it did not find a place to brace itself and stop until Sunday morning when it had reached 16 degrees, or 16 degrees below freezing. This recorded one of the few very cold spells since the memorable days of early January, 1897, when the mercury registered below zero. The weather of January, 1897, lasted for quite a week. Business was stagnated and it was about all anybody could do to keep warm. Everybody hugged the fires. Since 1897, it has been even colder than this spell, but it does seem that intensely cold weather is less frequent than it used to be.

The snow of this week was three inches deep. Had the ground not been wet and had it been colder when the snow started to fall, the earth would have been wrapped in a blanket of pure white fully six or seven inches thick. It was the first snow of any consequence, the first one to stay on the ground in this immediate locality, for several years. The winter of 1921-22 brought no snow at all. There were some heavy flakes to fall for a few hours in the winter previous, but it melted almost as fast as it fell. The winter previous to that one had but a slight snow, it did not lay on the ground scarcely any time.

The children have been wishing and wishing for snow for several years. They were specially pleased that it came. They enjoyed it. Skating and riding on sleds down "Pine Hill" west of town was the order of the day. The kids were there, the larger ones were there and even some of the staid and settled ones were out there. They were there Sunday afternoon and on Monday. City school superintendent, John Rundle, found that only about half the pupils came to school Monday morning, so he dismissed them for the day.

Monday afternoon, the weather began to moderate, and the snow to melt. Tuesday the mercury showed 32 degrees.

The winter thus far has been a very mild one. There has been but little rain and January was remarkable for its mildness and for so many clear days.

More or less apprehension about the mildness of the winter militating again good crops this year and especially has it been felt that a mild winter meant multiplied numbers of boll weevil just ready to pounce upon the cotton crop as soon as the first squares appeared. So the cold spell begets a better feeling about crop prospects for the year and especially is it reassuring to the cotton former.

The plumbers were given extra work Sunday and Monday because of frozen water pipes and of bursted water tanks. Thus it is with every compensation comes a penalty. Then, too, the coal dealer was benefitted by the sudden drop in temperature. He had had a lean winter up to the time of the snow.

Nature has done many wonderful things. It has painted beauty and perfection all over the earth, but in nothing has it eclipsed the charm and the grandeur of the earth wrapped in snow. It is a work of the heavenly artist. It makes one think of those things that are clothed in purity and in innocence. The snow is pure. It comes chasing out of the skies pure and clean, and whatever defilement it partakes of, it gets after it comes in contact with mother earth. How like man in this respect. God sends the little child here pure and clean, but the mixing with and the partaking of the things of the earth corrupt him, if he is corrupted.

SUPERVISORS AWARD $6500 CONTRACT

Law Mandatory But of Little Benefit to Average Citizen.

The board of supervisors this week let the contract to abstract the land titles of Grenada County. The work was knocked off to the lowest bidder for $6500.00.

The board acted under another foolish thing done by the last legislature. The law was passed in 1920 and is mandatory. However, the board has rocked along for three years without obeying the law, and there are many who thought it would have been wise to let the matter drift a while longer.

When the work is completed, it will hardly be of any benefit to the average tax-payer. When one wants an abstract of his land, the abstracting company or some attorney will find his task a great deal easier and simpler, but it will not cost the man who owns the land and who wants the abstract an less money.

Mr. B. D. Newsom was the successful bidder. This paper feels sure that he will do the work satisfactorily and well, and, inasmuch as the work was let The Sentinel is glad he got the contract. To his credit it may be said that when anything is entrusted to him to do, that he gets busy at once on the job.

It is understood that the attorney for the board advised that the statute is mandatory and that it was proper to award the contract. And, in view of the fact that the members of the board were only recently up before Chancellor McGowan on contempt charges for a failure to carry out a court order, it is presumed that they thought they had best not risk a mandamus (or damnamus?) proceedings until they got out of the brush about the other case. Mr. Cunningham of district 5, cast his vote against awarding the contract to any one.

Primarily the responsibility for the expenditure rests with the legislature and not with the supervisors, and whatever may be thought about the inadvisability of having the work done at all, the average man would no doubt have acted, under the circumstances, just as the supervisors did. The last legislature was wild on spending money. Many of the so-called leaders thought they were building monuments in making the appropriations and in providing for new things. They certainly taught the people of the State a severe lesson and while doing so, dug some political graves.

MANAGER OPERA HOUSE GOING TO LEAVE

R. W. Tyson To Move To Galveston, Texas.

The Sentinel but records the sentiment of the entire community in stating that it sincerely regrets that Mr. R. W. Tyson, who has had the Grenada opera house leased for the past three years, is going to leave Grenada. Mr. Tyson's lease on the opera house is soon to expire and it seems pretty well settled that he will locate in Galveston, Texas, where a very attractive business connection is offered him.

Mr. Tyson came to Grenada an entire stranger, but he at once impressed the community as a gentleman deserving of confidence and as a man who understood the picture show business. Time has proven that the first impression of him was absolutely correct.

He is a splendid man. He is quiet and dignified in demeanor. He is attentive to business and has met every demand of the best thought of Grenada in what he has put on the screen. There has been no public demand that he has not measured up to. When there was to be any general function that concerned the welfare of the general public, he always graciously tendered the opera house without charge. He became at once a part of the life and of the spirit of Grenada. He made friends because he showed himself worthy of friendships. He has succeeded well with the opera house and with the picture show because he has studied the business, and because of a splendid discretion and, too, because he had an intuition that never fails to serve a good purpose. Since he came here, he has married an excellent young lady which has still further identified him with the life of Grenada and made Grenada feel a keener interest in him.

The hope is yet indulged that he may find it best to remain here, but regardless of that, the best wishes of the community go with him to his new field of endeavor.

MRS. NANCY JANE RILEY DIED AT 73

After having spent seventy three years on earth, Mrs. Nancy Jane Riley died at the home of her son, W. J. Riley, just across Bogue last Friday and her remains were laid to rest in Bethel church burying ground Carroll County, after funeral services by Rev. Mr. Roberts of the Methodist church. How quickly the years roll by, yet how long do they appear sometimes. But when they are well spent, as was the case with the subject of this sketch, the end is but stepping out of a life of uncertainties to one of certainties. She has filled well her part in life's work and died believeing in the life and in the riches of a Risen Redeemer and Lord. To the bereft, The Sentinel extends sympathy.

OTHERS JOIN IN $2000 GOLD TO BE GIVEN

Twenty-eight Grenada Firms Give Tickets. The Biggest Thing and the Only Twelve Months Proposition of the Kind in the State. 100 People to Share. Grenada Means To Make This Year its Biggest.

Twelve other merchants of Grenada enter the $2000 Gold Gift proposition which makes 28 in all. This makes it all the better for the trade. When one comes to Grenada now, regardless almost of whom he may trade with, he gets an opportunity to share in the four gifts of $500 each which is to be distributed among the customers and friends who do business in Grenada. These Gifts make altogether, as heretofore stated, $2000. One $500 distribution will be made April 7; the next one, July 7; the next one, October 6 and the fourth one, December 24. The entrance of the other merchants makes no changes in the original plan. It is all the better for the trade that practically the whole town is now in the game.

The Grenada business men start out to make the year 1923 the biggest and best in all the history of the town. The merchants are going to improve and enlarge their stocks of merchandise. The year 1923 is destined to be an epoch-making one in Grenada. These merchants are determined to make a united pull so as to make it impossible for one to find a satisfactory excuse to go elsewhere to buy anything that is carried in a first class store.

In addition to offering high class goods at correct prices, Grenada merchants are going to throw in $2000 in Gold for good measure. Hence it is that even $1 spent in Grenada may bring the spender $100 in Gold. There has never before been such a proposition put on in Grenada, and so far as this paper knows, never one to run the entire year in any town in the whole country. But Grenada sets the pace in many things. The health authorities of the State say that Grenada is the cleanest town in Mississippi. Grenada is the seat of the greatest banking system in the State. Grenada has long been noted for its school system, and the fact that a college for young ladies has been here which has sent its graduates all over the civilized world. Grenada is recognized as second as a residence point to no town in the State. Its health record is as good as the best, and last, but by no means least, it has long been recognized as having one of the very BEST NEWSPAPERS in the State. So, with all this record to sustain, Grenada merchants have a great inspiration to go forward; to enlarge their trade; to make new friends and to take even better care of its old friends. Grenada merchants are determined to keep to the fore. This paper is ready to aid them in every way. Grenada merchants are resolute on winning. They recall what Pat said of the lobster: "That lobster has only one claw", said Pat, eyeing the "broiled live". "You see lobsters fight with each other and occasionally one loses a claw," explained the waiter. "All right," replied Pat, pushing back his plate, "but bring me the winner". It is the spirit that Pat expressed to the lobster that animates Grenada merchants.

Tell what Grenada merchants are doing to your neighbor and ask him to tell it to his neighbor. Send word across the creek about the $2000 in Gold that is to be absolutely given as a Bonus by Grenada merchants. The plan is so arranged that 100 people will share in the Gift. It may be YOU.

The following give tickets in the Gold Gift proposition. Ask for further details as to the plan: The Grenada Sentinel, Duncan & Co., Meek Motor Co., Salmon & Kimbrough, Doak Hardware Co., Lockett Lumber Co., Sharp Furniture Co., 2d Class Drug Store, Pressgrove Dry Goods Co., The Leader, Grenada Motor Co., H. K. Barwick, Dixie Cafe, City Lumber Co., Revell Furniture Co., White-Dyre Drug Co., Carothers Variety Store, L. Friedman, Grenada Auto Co., Corner Drug Store, Jno. T. Keeton & Co., Railroad Wreck Store, Jas. Horton, Heath Bros., First Aid Garage, A. D. Collins, E. J. Weyneth and Roane & Co.

E. C. NEELY SEEKS OFFICE OF CITY RECORDER

The Sentinel is commissioned to place the name of Mr. E. C. Neely before the voters of the city of Grenada for the office of Recorder which is to be vacant after Feb. 28, on account of the resignation of the present Recorder, Mr. H. G. Talbert.

Mr. Neely is going to succeed Mr. Talbert as bookkeeper for the Coca Cola bottling works, and very naturally he aspires for the vacancy in the city office which Mr. Talbert has been filling.

Mr. Neely came to Grenada some ten or twelve years ago and first connected himself with the mercantile firm of John P. Jones & Co. Later he was cashier of the Bank of Commerce. He went from here to Schlater where he took charge of a bank, a place he was compelled to give up on account of a prolonged illness. He has been back in Grenada for about two years. He is a clever, kind, obliging and thoughtful citizen who can be relied upon at all times to take his position with the best thought of the community on all matters of general interest.

That he is capable of successfully filling the office which he seeks goes without saying. His faithfulness in all other things is the very best guarantee that can be offered that he will prove faithful in this, should he be elected.

The Sentinel feels sure that the people of Grenada will give Mr. Neely's candidacy the proper consideration.

MRS HILL ENTERTAINS

Thursday afternoon, Feb. 1st, Mrs. Frank S. Hill entertained at a very lovely party in honor of her sister, Miss Ruth Shelton of Covington, Tenn. Four table of players enjoyed some exciting games of rook and at the close of these games a delicious salad course was enjoyed. Mrs. Hill has recently begun housekeeping and is proving herself a very competent and charming hostess and, having the assistance of a no less charming sister, makes her home a veritable mecca of the socially elect of Grenada.

On Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 6th, Mrs. Hill again threw open her hospitable home, this time with two honorees, her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Roper, and her sister, Miss Shelton, both of Covington, Tenn. Six tables of congenial players enjoyed thoroughly the bridge games. Mrs. Edgar Underwood, having top score, received a very attractive set of table markers and score pads, and to each of her honorees, Mrs. Hill presented a piece of her own exquisite handiwork a very lovely linen handkerchief.

After the games Mrs. Sel Roane and Mrs. C. E. Huggins assisted the hostess in serving a very delightful salad course.

MRS BETTIE INMAN ASKS FOR OFFICE

The Sentinel has been authorized to state to the voters of Grenada that Mrs. Bettie Inman asks their votes for the office of Recorder, a place which is to be vacant after Feb. 28, on account of the resignation of the present incumbent, Mr. H. G. Talbert.

When the right to vote and the obligation of exercising that right were given to the women, it was but natural to expect that they would seek to fill at least some of the offices. There are many official positions that hardly any lady or the most enthusiastic woman suffragist would contend that a woman is suited for. Still there are other places, especially clerical and some of an educational nature, that women are just as well prepared to fill as men.

Twenty years ago, there was hardly a lady clerk in any store in Grenada. There were but few anywhere. Today there are many, and they are said to be satisfactory and to meet the wants of business.

There are many lady bookkeepers. They are right here in Grenada, and the fact that they are retained by some of the most exacting business institutions would seem to be abundant proof that they are competent and satisfactory bookkeepers.

Grenada claims the distinction of furnishing one of the first ladies in Mississippi in the person of Miss Bessie Young, to the legal profession and she is now in the department of justice at Washington filling an important place.

Mrs. Inman is well known in Grenada. She states that if entrusted with the duties of the office that she will do her best to serve the public acceptably and satisfactorily. She is now dependent on her own energies and exertions for a livelihood. If elected, she states that she will be readily accessible at all times to those who have business with the Recorder and that the books of her office will be kept easily within reach of the business district of the town.

Mrs. Inman will no doubt do as the men have done and as is usual with those asking office, see the voters of Grenada and present her candidacy in person.

ALUMNAE TO CELEBRATE

Blue Mountain, February 3—Blue Mountain College is now in the midst of her 50th annual session. Surely this is of interest to every former student. The local alumnae are planning to celebrate. The date fixed is March 3, 1923. All former students of the college are cordially invited to be present. Free entertainment will be provided. During the 50 years many pupils have married and their present names and address have been lost sight of. Therefore any help anyone can give in issuing this invitation will be greatly appreciated. Can't you come? If so, please send your name to Mrs. Manning Hudson, Chairman entertainment Committee, Blue Mountain, Miss.

COLLEGE GIRLS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS

The theory that there is nothing new under the sun has at last been exploded by none other than the Y. W. C. A. of Grenada College. Not only have they exploded this formidable theory but they have done two other equally remarkable things—namely, they gave the student body an opportunity to celebrate all their birthdays on one day and made them glad of these birthdays and, secondly, a nice sum was realized from the project. Tables were arranged for every month in the year, having as their occupants those whose birthdays came in that particular month and whose privilege it was to bring as a gift to the Y. W. C. A. as many pennies as they had completed years in 1923.

An observer, on entering the room, would have found January's table covered in snow and surrounded by snugly-wrapped individuals.

February's children were so numerous that two tables were required. Those whose birthdays came before Valentine Day sat at a little table strewn with hearts and presided over by King and Queen of Hearts. The remainder slipped back into the dignified costumes of George Washington's day and had as favors the proverbial hatchet.

Shamrocks and Irish harps featured at March's table, and on the heels of St. Patrick followed the April fools seated on their dunce stools and wearing their high dunce caps.

The central decoration for May's table was the time-honored Maypole whose pastel streamers were matched by the dresses of girls who held them.

Pink wedding bells rang in June, and the guests burst into applause as the charming bridal party entered.

Red, white and blue predominated at July's table and a great American flag was draped back of the table.

August's table was transformed into a minature lake on the sandy banks of which small bathing beauties reclined and one daring damsel about four inches in height was in the act of diving into the mirrored surface. Organdies and palm leaf fans further alleviated the heat.

The little red schoolhouse on the table, instead of on the hill, welcomed its children to September's feast with tinv satchels and books with which to carry away memories of the occasion.

October's children also occupied two tables, the color scheme of which was orange and black. The favors were ears of corn dressed as little witches.

November's children celebrated Armistice day with patriotic colors and a large birthday cake as a centerpiece. Red Cross nurses, soldiers, sailors and canteen girls made up the participants.

December closed the year with a table decorated in Christmas colors and presided over by Santa Claus.

After the feast was over the children of each month adjourned to the college auditorium and concluded the evening's festivities with appropriate stunts.

REVIVAL MEETING MARCH 11

Pastor First Baptist Church Secures Noted Man.

Rev. W. E. Farr, pastor of the First Baptist church, and his congregation are felicitating over having secured Dr. F. J. Farrell, pastor of the First Baptist church at Dyersburg, Tenn., to hold a revival meeting in Grenada. The meeting is to begin March 11. Dr. Farrell is said to be one of the ablest divines in Tennessee. He is able in the pulpit. He has the credit of preaching in a way to reach the masses.

With Dr. Farrell will be associated Prof. E. L. Garnett of Ft. Worth, Texas, who is said to hardly have a superior in the South.

It is the purpose and the hope of the Pastor and his flock to have everybody in Grenada County as nearly as possible to hear these men and to get a blessing out of the meeting.

PLANNING FOR THE FIELD MEET

The schools comprising the North-Central Schoolmasters' Association had their first inter-school contests in basketball on last Friday. The schools in the district being divided up into groups of two, each competing against the other. The girls' team at Holcomb played here against the Grenada girls' team in a very exciting game, the final result being 22 to 23 in favor of Grenada. The Grenada girls will now have to play one of the winning teams in another part of the territory. The two strongest teams in the organization will play here at the Field Meet, also the two best teams in baseball, volley ball and tennis. The big meet which will be held here April 20 and 21 will afford some interesting contests in all forms of athletics and literary work.

MY DAILY DESIRE

To awaken each morning with a smile brightening my face; to greet the day with reverence for the opportunities it contains; to approach my work with a clear mind; to hold ever before me, even in the doing of little things, the Ultimate Purpose toward which I am working; to meet men and women with laughter on my lips and love in my heart; to be gentle and kind and courteous through all the hours; to approach the night with the weariness that ever woos sleep and the joy that comes from work well done—this is how I desire to waste wisely my days.—Selected.

MARION REILY WILL NOT RUN UNLESS

There Is a Line-up from Governor to Constable. Greatly Appreciates the Urging of Friends. The Bilbo Menace Gone Glimmering.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 3.—Rumors have been floating about for some time relative to the likelihood of Judge Marion W. Reily, of Meridian, becoming a candidate for governor. Judge Reily was in Jackson last night and when asked by a representative of the Clarion-Ledger if there was any foundation for the report, said he would not be a candidate.

"Do not misunderstand me," said Judge Reily. "As the situation now stands I will not offer for governor. However, if the same conditions should prevail that dominated the campaign of 1915 and the same machine produces candidates for every office from constable to governor, as was the case at that time, you may quote me as saying they will have Marion W. Reily to beat.

"The people of Mississippi have been kind to me. They gave me an almost unprecedented vote in the first and only time I have gone before them; in my race for governor when I was defeated by less than 500 votes.

"Recently," said Judge Reily, "I have received hundreds of letters urging that I make the race for governor. I prefer private life and will continue the practice of law unless it becoming apparent that the faction heretofore backing ex-Governor Bilbo and his hangers-on should again get behind him for governor. If this should come about I would feel it my duty to get into the race and give the best in me to save Mississippi from further Bilboism."

SAID AND DONE

The speedometer said sixty miles an hour.
The constable said it was ninety.
The natives said it was a crime.
He said it was the life.
His friends said it with flowers.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6—The following items in reference to the making out of Income Tax returns and what is due, is sent out by the Bureau of Internal Revenue:

Revenue officers are visiting every county in the United States to aid taxpayers in the preparation of their income tax returns for the year 1922. Information concerning the date of their arrival and the location of their offices may be obtained by writing the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives.

Forms for filing returns of individual net income for the year 1922 are being sent to taxpayers who filed returns for the year 1921. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to file a return and pay the tax on time, on or before March 15, 1923. The forms, 1040A for filing returns of net income $5,000 and less and 1040 for filing returns of net income in excess of $5,000, may be obtained from collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors.

Returns are required of every single person whose net income for 1922 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person whose net income was $2,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more. Careful study of the instructions on the forms will greatly aid in making a correct return.

In the making of his income tax return for the year 1922, a taxpayer, if single, is allowed an exemption of $1,000. A married person, or head of a family, whose net income for the year 1922 was $5,000 or less is allowed an exemption of $2,500. The exemption allowed a married person or head of family whose net income was in excess of $5,000 is $2,000. A head of a family is a person who actually supports one or more persons living in his or her household who are closely related to him or her by blood marriage or adoption.

An additional credit of $400 is allowed for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon the taxpayer for chief support, if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self support because mentally or physically defective. A single man whose net income for 1922 was $2,000 and who supports in his home an aged mother would have no tax to pay, but would nevertheless be required to file a return. The fact that a person's income may be non-taxable by reason of the exemptions does not nullify the requirement to file a return if his income was within the prescribed figures—$1,000 if single and $2,000 if married.

The normal tax is 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the exemptions, and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four installments due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15.

The revenue act of 1921 provides that an income tax return shall be filed by every person, married or single, whose gross income for the year

"The basis of our government being the opinion of the people, the very first object should be to keep that right; and were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I would not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter."—Thomas Jefferson.

THE BRAND OF GUILT STILL THERE

The action of the State Supreme court, as indicated in its decision Monday made on a suggestion of error filed by the attorneys for the fire insurance companies, reduces the fines or penalties imposed on the companies but does not remove the brand of guilt.

We, of course, know little of the technicalities of the law and we would not be understood as criticising the action of the court, but it does seem to the lay mind that that body rather plead guilty to having gone off half-cocked when it reversed itself so quickly on a case which had been more generally discussed through the press and by many public speakers than perhaps any other which has been before the State's highest court since the celebrated repudiated bonds case more than three quarters of a century ago.

If the fire insurance companies are wiggling and squirming, and if they are being "persecuted", as some choose to term it, they are but getting a dose of what they so very frequently give those who pay them hard earned money for a fire insurance policy. There are hardly any technicalities that they do not take advantage of.

By the way, is it not about time that the people of Mississippi are getting some reductions in fire insurance premium rates?

REILY MAY YET RUN

Marion Reily has stated that he will not run for Governor unless the State is again menaced with Bilbo and unless Bilbo's faction seeks to make a line up from Governor down to constable. We shall be astonished if the conditions which this able, brainy and patriotic man lays down do not yet force him into the race. With Marion Reily in the race, things will be up and doing from the Tennessee line to the Gulf.

"GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE"

The pictures of six educators, and all no doubt able ones and authorities on scholarship, appeared in the Commercial Appeal of Wednesday under the designation, "These authorities on agriculture are analyzing South's needs for prosperity". Now we would not utter one word that would discredit these men in their chosen work, but we submit that the fact that so many "educators" have assumed the role of teaching the farmers during the last twenty five years, has gone a great way towards making the farmer deaf to many worthy admonitions. So much has been told the farmer over and over again that he found to be not true, that he has become a veritable doubting Thomas. We are just wondering how many of these men gathered in Memphis, who are undertaking to tell the farmer about his problems and how to solve them, are ready and willing to go back to the farms themselves. There is something in the Good Book that states "Go thou and do likewise".

The Daily News says that the street cars of Jackson have run this week as usual. Well, that is not saying much.

According to Judge Thomas, Lt. Gov. Casteel has the right to issue pardons when Russell is out of the State. Poor, blind Lee gets it in the neck again. The trouble with the fellow is that he does not know where to get off or when to get on.

Our friend, H. T. Caldwell of New Albany, is again at the helm in the newspaper game. He has established the Union Weekly. If the Union Weekly is as good a paper as its editor is honest in his character and sincere in his convictions, then it will serve a high purpose in its community.

We see it stated that Dr. Donald of Hattiesburg is thinking of running for Lieutenant Governor. The Doctor may be a good physician, but we know him as out Heroding Herod when it comes to rank partisanship and Bilbo, Vardaman and coat-tail riders. He is so rotten that he actually smells bad.

Editor Lawrence, the able editor of The Grenada Sentinel, paid us one of the finest compliments, in his last issue, that we ever received. We want to assure our distinguished friend that we deeply appreciate it, coming from him, even if it did have one of the best sermons ever preached at us beautifully camouflaged among the delightful remarks.—Sunflower Tocsin.

Language is a vehicle of thought which we all might use. Good language is possible for all to possess. Why be satisfied with a vehicle which rattles with loose grammatical forms, creaks with biting sarcasm, jingles with cheap slang, or gives forth the noxious odors of profanity? Our language proclaims us for what we are. The man who can drive a good car prefers it to an old pile of orphan junk. Choose your language with equal and discriminating care.—Selected.

Mrs. Jackson Urges All Suffering Women to Take Stella Vitae for Their Troubles.

"I could praise Stella Vitae the longest day I live and would urge all suffering women everywhere to take this wonderful treatment for their troubles," said Mrs. A. P. Jackson, of Isabel, Louisiana.

"I had indigestion so bad that I could hardly eat a thing that would agree with me and I would feel greatly distressed afterwards. My legs would ache and pain me, too, and at times the pain was so great as to make it hard for me to get about on my feet.

"Then without a sign of warning I would get so dizzy that everything would just be whirling around and I would turn right blind and almost fall down. My nerves were worn to a frazzle and I would jump and shake like everything if suddenly startled.

"I began to improve right from the first when I started taking Stella Vitae, and every bottle I took seemed to put more life in me and build me up. I think Stella Vitae is the greatest thing going and I just wouldn't be without it for anything."

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold upon the positive guarantee that if it does not bring relief the purchase price will be refunded. Druggists are supplied from the Van Vleet-Mansfield Drug Co., Memphis, Tenn., Distributors.—Adv.

1922 was $5,000 or more. Broadly speaking, gross income includes all income received by the taxpayer during the year from salary or wages, or from "business, trade, profession or vocation", dealing in property, or the transaction of any business carried on for profit. Net income, upon which the tax is assessed, is gross income less certain specified deductions for business expenses, losses, bad debts, taxes, contributions, etc.

Among the most important items in the returns of many taxpayers are the deductions for business expenses. In the case of a storekeeper, they include a reasonable allowance for salaries paid employees, amounts spent for advertising, premiums for insurance against fire or other business losses, the cost of water, light, heat, and fuel used in his place of business, drayage and freight bills.

A professional man, doctor or lawyer, may claim as deductions the cost of supplies used in the practice of his profession, expenses paid in the operation and repair of an automobile used in making professional calls, dues to professional societies, subscription to professional journals, office rent, and the cost of fuel, light heat and water used in his office, and the hire of assistants.

The farmer may deduct all amounts paid in the production, harvesting and marketing of crops, including labor, cost of seed and fertilizer purchased, cost of minor repairs to farm buildings (other than the dwelling, which is personal expense) and cost of small tools used up in the course of a year or two. Rent paid for a farm also is an allowable deduction.

Deduction of personal or living expenses such as rent paid for a dwelling, hire of domestic servants, education of children, etc., is expressly disallowed by the revenue act.

In making out his income tax return for the year 1922, the taxpayer is required to include all items of gross income. In the case of a store keeper the gross income consists usually of the gross profits on sales, together with income from other sources. The returns must show the gross sales, purchases, and cost of goods sold. To reflect net income correctly, and to acertain gross income, inventories are ordinarily required as of the beginning and end of each taxable year. The professional man, doctor, lawyer, dentist, must include all fees and other compensation for professional services.

The farmer is required to report as gross income all profits derived from the sale or exchange of farm products, including crops and live stock, whether raised on the farm or purchased and resold. A farmer who rents his farm on the crop sharing basis must report such income for the years in which the crops are sold. Profit obtained from the sale or rental of farm lands also must be reported.

In order that they may obtain full advantage of the deductions from gross income to which they are entitled, taxpayers are advised by collectors of internal revenue to study carefully the instructions on the forms for making returns under the head "Income from Business or Profession."

Liability to file an income tax return for the year 1922 is determined by a person's status on the last day of the taxable year, December 31, if the return is made on the calendar year basis, as most are. If on that date he was single he must file a return if his net income for 1922 was $1,000 or more, and he is allowed only an exemption of $1,000. If he was married on December 31 he is granted the exemption allowed a married person for the full year, $2,500 if his net income was $5,000 or less, and $2,000 if his net income exceeded $5,000. The bride's income, however, must be considered with that of her husband, the larger exemptions being allowed married couples living together. A widow or widower whose spouse died before the end of the year is classed as a single person. Divorcees and persons separated by mutual consent also are classed as single persons.

Similar conditions exist with respect to the head of a family. If, during the year, his support of relatives ceased he is entitled only to the $1,000 exemption. A man who has a dependent child, not mentally or physically defective, that attains the age of 18 years just before the close of the taxable year, can not claim the $400 credit for a dependent.

To avoid penalty, income tax returns must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives or has principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1923.

Where additional time is required because of illness or absence of the taxpayer from home, the collector may grant, upon application before the return is due, March 15, an extension of not to exceed 30 days. If an accurate return cannot be made within the 30 day extension period, a request for a further extension must be made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. Collectors have not authority to grant an extension exceeding 30 days.

Failure to make a return on time subjects the delinquent to a penalty of $1,000 and an additional penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due. If the failure is willful, however, or an attempt is made to evade the tax by filing a false return, the offender is liable to imprisonment and to a fine of not more than $10,000 and costs, in addition to a penalty of 50 per cent of tax evaded.
